

BDS PROGRAM OUTCOMES

CURRICULAR OUTCOMES & GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES DENTAL COLLEGE

Reference: In continuation of earlier notification No. SIMC/DA/SA/19 dated 22/08/2019 and for the purposes of compliance with the terminology used in the applicable PMDC inspection proforma. For institutional curricular documentation and PMDC compliance, the terms “BDS Program Outcomes” and “Curricular Outcomes” shall refer to the overarching knowledge, clinical skills, professional attitudes, behaviors and graduate attributes expected to be attained upon successful completion of the BDS program

Upon successful completion of the prescribed training in the BDS program the dental graduate should be able to practice and perform as competent dental care provider, brilliant clinical decision maker, creative researcher, role model and an effective communicator i.e. a 5-star dentist.

- PO-1: Competent Dental Care Provider:
 - Apply evidence-based, best available, latest dental concepts to provide effective and safe patient care (assessed by SEQ, MCQ, OSCE, Long & Short Cases).
- PO-2: Brilliant Clinical Decision Maker:
 - Perform clinical skills and procedures grounded in knowledge about their indications, contraindications and complications to ensure patient safety (assessed by OSCE, Long & Short Cases).
- PO-3: Creative Researcher:
 - Demonstrate creativity and a research-oriented attitude with appropriate knowledge of research question, design, data evaluation & ethics in conducting research (assessed by SEQ, MCQ, OSCE).
- PO-4: Role Model:
 - Deal with problems of population-based primary health care, including health promotion and disease prevention with special emphasis on vulnerable populations by understanding his/her role as an effective health care member and be able to take appropriate action (assessed by SEQ, MCQ, OSCE, Long & Short Cases)
- PO-5: Effective Communicator:
 - Demonstrate good interpersonal communication skills (assessed by OSCE, Long & Short Cases).

Dean Academics
Prof. Dr. Azfar Farogh